WELCOME

WELCOME TO THE 2025 RESEARCH STAFF CONFERENCE

Futureproof Your Career: Collaboration, Development & Sustainability

Dear Colleagues,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2025 Research Staff Conference, themed Futureproof Your Career: Collaboration, Development, and Sustainability. This event celebrates the talent, dedication, and innovative spirit of our research staff across the University of Manchester, the University of Salford, and Manchester Metropolitan University. Together, we aim to equip you with the skills, connections, and strategies needed to thrive in a dynamic and ever-changing research landscape.

Collaboration lies at the heart of progress, and this conference reflects that ethos. Today offers a great opportunity to share ideas, build networks, and explore pathways to professional growth. As researchers, your contributions not only advance knowledge but also shape a sustainable future—a goal that aligns closely with the values driving this year's theme.

As Vice-President for Research, I am committed to fostering an environment where researchers can flourish. My own experiences—whether through championing interdisciplinary research, supporting doctoral training, or engaging with global organisations—have reinforced my belief in the power of ambition, collaboration and innovation. I hope this conference inspires you to embrace opportunities for development and to think creatively about the role your work plays in addressing some of society's most pressing challenges.

Thank you for joining us today and for the contributions you make to our research community. Do make the most of the panels, workshops, and networking opportunities. Let this conference be a catalyst for new ideas, meaningful connections, and actionable steps toward futureproofing your career.

MEET THE PANEL

What Does Sustainability Look Like in Research?

Sustainability is an essential consideration in today's research landscape, shaping how we work, engage with stakeholders, and plan for the future. But what does sustainability mean in the context of your research? This panel brings together experts from diverse fields to share their perspectives and experiences, exploring how sustainability influences their work and the wider research environment. Join us for an insightful discussion on the role sustainability plays in driving innovation, collaboration, and lasting impact.

COEN

Reader in Media Psychology
University of Salford

Dr. Sharon Coen is a Reader/Associate Professor in Media Psychology at the University of Salford. She is the Local Network Lead of the UK Reproducibility Network (UKRN) and the UKRN Representative at CoARA (Coalition for Advancing Research Assessment). In her research she applies media psychology to promote actions that minimize the impact of climate change and address the climate emergency. Dr. Coen is passionate about advancing sustainability in research and open science

DR MATTHEW FAULKNER

Research Fellow
Future Biomanufacturing
Research Hub
University of Manchester

Matthew obtained his PhD in 2018 from the University of Liverpool. From 2018 – 2021 Matthew worked as a Research Associate; this role involved the study of sustainable terpene production through industrial biotechnology. Now at Future Biomanufacturing Research Hub, Matthew is developing novel routes to biological carbon capture utilisation and store using photosynthetic and chemoautotrophic bacteria.

DR HELEN HOLMES

Senior Lecturer in Sociology
Sustainable Consumption Institute
Deputy Director of Sustainable Futures
University of Manchester

Helen's research focuses on waste and disposal and is involved in two projects: One Bin to Rule Them All and The Waste Tip. One Bin to Rule Them All is a UKRI funded project with social sciences, material science and business models to explore how we can improve plastic recycling. The Waste Tip is a UMRI funded project on fly-tipping to understand the impact, why it happens and how it can be tackled. The project involves, social science, material science, business and management, and engineering.

MEET THE PANEL CHAIRS

DR SIOBHAN
KELLY

Siobhán is a Research Fellow at the University of Salford. Her research interests span several areas related to social care, with a particular focus on supporting marginalised individuals and groups/communities. She has contributed to projects around ageing, dementia, social participation, social housing, and care homes. Currently, she is working on a five-year study centred around elevating and empowering the social care nursing workforce.

DR SAMANTHA
FERNANDES

Sam recently completed a PhD in Mechanical Engineering at the University of Manchester. Throughout the PhD, Sam has developed a passion for small group teaching, workshop creation, and peer mentoring, earning a Fellowship of the Higher Education Academy (FHEA) in recognition of these efforts.

MEET THE FACILITATORS

The workshops offer practical tools and insights to help you thrive in an evolving research landscape. Facilitated by experts from the University of Manchester, the University of Salford, Manchester Metropolitan University, and beyond, these sessions focus on collaboration, career development, and sustainability in research.

PARALLEL WORKSHOP SESSIONS

Narrative CVs with Dr Elizabeth Adams – Rutherford Room

Grant Writing Reimagined with Dr Glyn Morris – Dalton Room

Interdisciplinary Speed Networking: Find a Potential Collaborator with Dr Anne Marie Sowerbutts – Innovation Suite

Maximising Your Research Impact: Creating and Managing Online Profiles with Dr Ashley Gluchowski and Georgina Alsop – The Boardroom

DR ELIZABETH

● Narrative CVs Workshop

Elizabeth has over 15 years of experience working in career and professional development support in university as an external consultant. Elizabeth is also a coach and some of the topics include leadership, career development and work-life balance. Elizabeth has a PhD in Chemistry.

GEORGINA ALSOP

● Maximising Your Research
Impact Workshop

Georgina an Open Research Specialist working in the Open Research Team at Manchester Metropolitan University. She advises and support researchers with their researcher profiles, including ORCID, Scopus and Google Scholar, as well as other areas of open research, including open access publishing. For the last two years she has led projects to identify improvements to data, profile links and quality of Manchester Met researcher profiles and work with researchers to address these.

DR ASHLEY GLUCHOWSKI

Maximising Your Research
Impact Workshop

Ashley is a clinical exercise physiologist and certified special population specialist. Although her background is in medical science and clinical trials in cardiovascular surgery, she is now interested in the awareness, knowledge, and implementation of the strength component of the UK's Chief Medical Officers' physical activity guidelines in real-world practice. As a Fellow of the University of Salford, her current research takes a co-design approach to developing new strategies to overcome the barriers that we traditionally see to strength training participation.

DR GLYN
MORRIS

Grant Writing Reimagined
Workshop

Glyn has over 10 years of experience in public and media engagement. He holds an FHEA and a PgCert in Professional and Higher Education. After completing a PhD in Wound Biology Glyn went on to develop his skills in science and communication, public engagement and research impact in various roles.

DR ANNE MARIE
SOWERBUTTS

Interdisciplinary Speed
Networking: Find a Potential
Collaborator Workshop

Anne Marie is the Prosper lead at The University of Manchester since June 2023. Anne Marie has worked as a senior dietitian and briefly in cancer research before starting a PhD in theology and bioethics. Prosper@Manchester uses a mix of online resources and supportive workshops and courses for researchers, giving them the time to focus on their career development and building on their professional development.

THE GMRESDEV BUDDY SCHEME

The Greater Manchester Researcher Development (GMResDev) Buddy Scheme connects postdocs and early-career researchers (ECRs) from the University of Salford, University of Manchester, and Manchester Metropolitan University. It's a brilliant way to meet new colleagues, expand your network, and enrich your experience as a researcher in a relaxed and informal setting.

WHY JOIN?

- Expand Your Network: Connect with peers at similar career stages across Greater Manchester.
- Gain Fresh Perspectives: Build connections beyond your research group and discover new ideas.
- Enjoy Informal Support: Share experiences, advice, and encouragement with like-minded colleagues.

Curious to know more? Attend the GMResDev Buddy Scheme Launch at the conference!

14:00 - 14:30 in the Dalton Room

IMAGES IN RESEARCH COMPETITION

In line with the Futureproof Your Career theme, we're excited to launch the Images in Research Competition! This is your chance to showcase the innovative spirit of your work while highlighting what "Sustainability in Research" means to you.

WHAT'S INVOLVED?

Share an image that captures the essence of your research. Shortlisted entries will be displayed at the conference, and attendees will vote for their favorite. A winner will be announced during the closing session.

Prizes:

- People's Choice Awards:
  - Winner: £45 Love2Shop voucher
  - Runner-up: £25 Love2Shop voucher
- Judges' Choice Award:
  - Winner: £45 Love2Shop voucher

How to Get Involved

1. Download and complete both forms:
  - Application Form
  - Image Authorisation Form
2. Email the completed forms and your image to resdev@manchester.ac.uk by 10th January 2025.

GOT QUESTIONS?

Contact us at resdev@manchester.ac.uk for more information.

We can't wait to see how your work captures the theme of sustainability in research!

THANK YOU

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has contributed to the 2025 Research Staff Conference.

Special thanks to:

- Our speakers and panellists for agreeing to share their expertise and insights.
- Workshop facilitators for crafting engaging and practical sessions.
- The Researcher Development Teams at the University of Manchester, the University of Salford, and Manchester Metropolitan University for their dedication in organising this event.
- All attendees for bringing your curiosity, ideas, and enthusiasm to what promises to be a fantastic day.

Help Us Shape Future Conferences

Your feedback is invaluable to us. After the event, we'd love to hear about your experiences and ideas for improvement. Please take a few minutes to complete our feedback form by using the link below.
